

Committee Preference Form

I would be interested in serving on one of the committees listed below:

Agents Service

Committee Descriptions:

Committees are formed after each annual convention.

Agents Service: Provides services or products to benefit the members of the association. Special emphasis is placed on agent-company relations, agent-client relations, product knowledge and agency management.

Membership

Membership: Responsible for finding ways to attract and maintain membership. This includes establishing dues structure, creating membership campaigns and integrating membership issues into ongoing association programs.

Automation

Automation: Provides the resources to enhance the utilization of our member's automation systems and to assist agencies with the ongoing process of automation. This is accomplished through seminars, articles in the Professional Agent Magazine and other methods.

Club YPC

Young Professionals Club: The mission of the Young Professionals Club of Wisconsin is to provide a forum and means for responding to the needs of young professionals during the establishment phase of their insurance related careers through:

- Education
- Networking
- Socializing
- Professional Development
- Encouraging Tomorrow's Leaders

By developing young professionals, we can enhance the membership of PIA, improve the industry image and insure the future of independent agency system.

Public Relations

Public Relations: Work to create a positive image of professional independent insurance agents both to the general public and within the insurance industry.

Convention

Convention: Plan and organize the PIAW annual Convention. Duties include setting the date, location, agenda and evaluation each convention. The planning of the agenda includes: food & refreshments, entertainment, educational programs, exhibitors' hall, banquet, etc.

Education

Education/ CIC/CISR: Responsible for setting the location, date and speakers for the Certified Insurance Counselors and Certified Insurance Service Representative programs. They are also responsible for evaluating each institute in order to maintain the quality of these programs. This committee also evaluates the changing education needs of our members and plans other education seminars held throughout the year.
